WHAT OUR RECOGNITION PARTNERS SAY

"Volunteers make a massive and positive contribution to communities across Wales, and by offering concert tickets for our performances, we hope that Tempo volunteers know how valued and appreciated they are."

Sassy Hicks, Head of Marketing, BBC NOW

"We are delighted to be partnering with Tempo Time Credits. Having worked with the charity for many years across our Westminster contract, we've seen the success and impact the programme has had within the local area. We are now implementing their Tempo Time Credits scheme right across the South East region."

Everyone Active, UK

"It's kind of like free marketing."

Greenmeadow Farm, Wales

“

"Tempo brings new audiences and has really raised our venue profile. We can easily manage our offer which means we have never worried about being overrun or turning people away."

Plantasia Tropical Zoo, Swansea

“

"The benefits and exposure significantly outweigh any perceived risk. As a result of our partnership with Tempo, we are clearly talked about in the community."

The Royal Mint Experience, Wales

"Tempo Time Credits bring in new faces to the centres who have never been here before. It helps us to encourage people to stay fit and healthy."

Greenwich Leisure Limited

"With the credits we get new people into the building that wouldn't necessarily come. Our teams can then focus on converting and retaining new members that we may have lost to competitors gyms."

Active Nation, Chorley

"Our business aim was to increase accessibility to a London visitor audience. Being involved with Tempo has meant that we already have reached the audiences that we knew we wanted to reach. They did all the work for us."
